

TREFOR GRANT NAMED CHIEF OPERATIONS OFFICER OF DRIFTWOOD RESORTS

Driftwood Resorts announced that Trefor Grant, BVI Belonger and lifelong resident, will become the Chief Operations Officer of Driftwood Resorts, as of September 1st.

Driftwood Resorts is a new resort brand in the BVI, owned and managed by BVI Belongers. Driftwood currently operates Nail Bay Estates and Resort and Mooney Bay Estate on Virgin Gorda, and the soon to open Anegada Beach Club at Keel Point on Anegada. Doug Riegels, owner of Driftwood, stated "It was very important to me that we find a BVIlander to fill this position, and I needed someone with a broad range of hospitality experience. Trefor was the perfect choice. We intend to operate each of our resorts as best of class." Mr. Riegels continued, "Nail Bay is receiving a major upgrade and re-branding during the off season. We'll have a new spa and offices, and our Sugarcane restaurant will feature a completely new menu, renovation and equipment upgrade. I am confident that Trefor, with his experience and commitment to excellence, will channel each of our resorts to new heights."

Trefor Grant stated, "I am excited to take on this new challenge. Doug Riegels has made a commitment to develop quality resorts that are sensitive to our beautiful islands. In addition to Nail Bay and Mooney Bay, the new Anegada Beach Club with its luxury canopies will be very special. There will be nothing like this in the BVI's. People can expect a top quality product and exceptional service at all of our properties."

Trefor Grant, a Hospitality Professional, hails from the British Virgin Islands, holds an Associate's Degree in Hotel and Restaurant Management, a Bachelor's Degree in Tourism Management and a Certificate in Advanced Tourism Studies. His notable hospitality experience has allowed him to command senior positions at local and international hotels and resorts, namely Long Bay Beach Resort, The Moorings, Village Cay, Club Med Mexico and the exclusive Sutton Place Hotel in Vancouver.
